

SCAM ALERT: In your online booth profile, the "public Contact" fields are OPTIONAL, and we recommend that they be left blank until the week of the convention. If you have visible contact information in your profile in the weeks/months leading up to the convention, it WILL be used by scammers to bombard your email and phone number with phony offers to sell you attendee lists, hotel accommodations, shipping, etc.

NECANN and our partners NEVER sell our contact information or make it available to 3rd parties. Any email or phone offer to sell you an attendee or exhibitor lists, hotel reservations, shipping services, etc is a scam.

If you have any doubts about the legitimacy of someone claiming to be